

Artist Review Process

Geras Tousignant Gallery reviews all artist submissions. Due to the volume of submissions we are unable to respond to everyone.

Artist Portfolio Review

Thank you for your interest in exhibiting at Geras Tousignant Gallery. We look forward to reviewing your portfolio. Please be patient during the portfolio review process. Due to time constraints imposed by monthly exhibitions, presentations, installations, volume of submissions and day to day gallery functions, we are unable to respond to everyone.

Please familiarize yourself with the gallery by visiting our website www.gtfineart.com After reviewing the gallery, if you believe your work is appropriate for review we request that you submit the following information along with a link to your website or images of work. Do not send any slides or images to the gallery directly anything sent to the gallery will not be returned even with self-addressed stamped envelopes.

Along with your images please include the following:

1. Up to 5 images of sample artwork.
2. Current resume listing exhibition record, collections and education
3. Artist's statement
4. Reviews or articles

We may also ask you to discuss your portfolio and to present original artwork. Once again thank you for considering Geras Tousignant Gallery.
